IUPUI’s mission, vision, and values statement articulates the University’s ongoing commitment to understanding and appreciating diversity, both within and beyond our society. It is with this commitment that the Chancellor’s Diversity Scholar Award honors a faculty member who creates, maintains, and demonstrates to the campus and larger community the ability to infuse a common thread of diversity in his or her scholarship and service.

The Office of the Chancellor and the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion invite nominations to recognize an outstanding faculty member who exemplifies the value of diversity in their scholarship and service and maintains a record of high accomplishment and leadership. A $3,000 cash award will be given to the faculty member.

Eligibility
- Any full-time tenured or tenure track faculty member who champions domestic and/or international diversity can be nominated.
- Preference will be given to faculty members with at least five years or more of diversity impact at IUPUI or with a history of diversity scholarship and service prior to employment at IUPUI.
- Candidates are eligible to be considered for three successive years.
- Candidates who elect to resubmit are encouraged to update their submissions.
- Self-nomination is not permitted.
- Past award winners are not eligible to reapply.

Criteria
- Faculty members nominated for this award would exemplify a high standard of scholarship and service that impact diversity.
- The work should be considered outstanding and worthy of recognition because of its campus, local community, and/or global impact.
- Strong candidates will have demonstrated excellence in diversity and equity related to research, professional service, civic engagement, and overall impact on campus climate.

Nomination Process
- Any member of the campus community may serve as a nominator.
- Nominators are encouraged to prepare their nominations jointly with faculty and students.
- Complete the electronic nomination form and upload required documentation online at: https://academicaffairs.iupui.edu/Faculty-Affairs/Honors-Awards/IUPUI-Campus-Awards/DiversityScholar/
