Section I: OVERALL STRUCTURE OF LIBRARY FACULTY GOVERNANCE

A. Bylaws of the IUPUI Library Faculty
   The Bylaws of the IUPUI Library Faculty can be found in Appendix 1.

B. Authority of the IUPUI Library Faculty
   IUPUI Library Faculty provides oversight of promotion and tenure for all appointed professional librarians on the campuses of IUPUI and IUPUC. The authority of the IUPUI Library Faculty is given in the IUPUI Faculty Guide, Governance at IUPUI section (link to current Guide can be found on the IUPUI Office of Academic Affairs website).

C. IUPUI Faculty Council
   IUPUI Faculty Council (IFC) is the faculty governance organization for all appointed faculty on the campuses of IUPUI and IUPUC. Per the IUPUI Faculty Guide, IFC is comprised of elected unit representatives, elected at-large representatives from the campus faculty, and ex officio administrative members. Librarians may be elected to the IFC as at-large representatives or as representatives of the University Library or their associated professional school.

D. Indiana University Libraries
   No University-level librarian faculty governance organization currently exists. Instead, the libraries of Indiana University work together as needed to complete group purchases of library resources, manage the shared online catalog and advocate for libraries at the University-level. All directors or deans of IU libraries are members of the Council of Head Librarians which meets three times per year to discuss issues of university-wide interest and to plan and authorize joint endeavors.

   Another way in which Indiana University libraries work together is through the Indiana University Librarians Association (InULA), which has a twofold purpose that does not include faculty governance. InULA’s purpose is to (1) to promote excellence in library service and (2) to provide opportunities for continuing education and professional development. InULA sponsors programs and workshops, publishes a newsletter, and gives Research Incentive Grants to support the research of its members, among other activities. Information regarding membership and programming is available on the InULA website (see Appendix 6).

E. University Faculty Council
   University Faculty Council (UFC) is the faculty governance organization for all appointed faculty of Indiana University. Per the UFC Constitution, the voting membership of the UFC is composed of elected faculty (including librarians), ex-officio members, and students. Each campus elects one faculty representative for each 200 voting members (tenured and tenure-track faculty) on said campus.
Section II: HISTORY OF THE IUPUI LIBRARY FACULTY

A. This section will be forthcoming.

Section III: ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

A. Academic Appointment Types

The following academic appointments for librarians are excerpted from the Indiana University Policy “Classification of Academic Appointments” (ACA-14).

1. Tenure-Track Appointments

“Tenure-track librarians have responsibility for performance (of librarianship duties), professional development/research/creative activities, and service. Librarians have a master’s degree from an American Library Association-accredited library school or the equivalent professional credentials or a graduate degree in other professional or scholarly fields where appropriate. Titles: Librarian, Associate Librarian, and Assistant Librarian.”

2. Visiting Appointments

“Visiting appointments are appropriate where there is a temporary need, for example, to fill the place of an appointee on leave, where there is an increased need for academic personnel in circumstances where there is uncertainty the need will continue, or where a position has become available or open with insufficient lead time to conduct an appropriate search.” A visiting appointment may continue for no more than two years, except in special circumstances approved by IUPUI’s Chief Academic Officer. This is not a tenure-track appointment.

3. Adjunct Appointments

“Adjunct appointments are appropriate for individuals who have expertise useful for the accomplishment of the unit’s mission where that expertise is not available in the unit’s regular faculty. An adjunct appointee does not participate in faculty governance in the unit in which an adjunct appointment is held. Those with adjunct appointments fall within three groups: individuals whose principal employments are outside the university; those whose principal employments are within the University in positions for which teaching is not an appropriate responsibility; and faculty whose work in a second academic unit justifies a courtesy appointment in that unit.” Adjunct appointments are part-time.

B. Position Descriptions

Each librarian shall be provided with a position description from their respective library administration.

C. Salary Information

Faculty salary increases are based on merit and performance. The Indiana University Policy “Access to and Maintenance of Academic Employee Records” stipulates that compensation is public record. For more information on salary policy, see the IUPUI Faculty Guide, Salary Information section.

D. Policies and Procedures for Access to Records

The Indiana University Policy “Access to and Maintenance of Academic Employee Records” outlines both employee information that is part of the public record as well as how employee records can be accessed by University administrators and the employee. See the Policy for more information.
Section IV: PROMOTION AND TENURE

A. Appointment and Tenure-Probationary Period

1. Notice of Terms of Initial Appointment
   The following is excerpted from the Indiana University Policy “Reappointment and Non-Reappointment During Probationary Period” (ACA-22).

a. Before a librarian is appointed to a library rank in the University, the initial salary, rank, years as a librarian elsewhere creditable toward tenure, and duration of the initial appointment and of the probationary period shall be stated in writing and placed in the possession of the University and the librarian.
   b. The librarian shall also be advised in writing, before or at the time of the initial appointment, of the criteria and procedures employed in recommendations and decisions about reappointment and the award of tenure specified in Indiana University Policies, the IUPUI Faculty Guide, and IUPUI Library Faculty documents.
   c. The librarian shall acknowledge in writing at the time of acceptance of the appointment that the conditions and terms of the initial appointment, as well as the criteria and procedures for reappointment and tenure, are agreed to.

2. Tenure-Probationary Period Timeline
   a. The “tenure-probationary period” is the time between appointment as a librarian and the grant of tenure. Typically, this period is seven years, but tenure may be conferred at the time of initial appointment or after less than seven years.
   b. During the tenure-probationary period, the librarian undergoes annual reviews and a three-year formative review. Then, no later than the sixth year of probationary service, there is a review leading to a recommendation of tenure or non-reappointment.
   c. The tenure-probationary period is determined by the Office of Academic Affairs at the time of appointment.
   d. IUPUI Librarians are subject to the Indiana University Policy “Faculty and Librarian Tenure” (ACA-37). In this policy, you will find further details on:
      - the tenure-probationary period;
      - credit for time at other institutions; and
      - non-reappointment.
   e. In addition, IUPUI has its own policies on early tenure and promotion as well as stopping the tenure clock. For these policies, refer to the IUPUI Faculty Guide’s IUPUI Tenure and Promotion Policies and Procedures section.

3. Policies Governing Appointment, Reappointment, and Non-Reappointment of Librarians
   During the tenure-probationary period, appointments are usually for a period of one to three years and are renewable. Per the IUPUI Faculty Guide, “the reappointment recommendation constitutes a written form of review. After the period of initial appointment, reappointment is considered annually until the end of the probationary period, and thereafter, for non-tenured faculty, at intervals one year prior to the end of a multi-year appointment.

See also the Indiana University Policy "Reappointment and Non-Reappointment During Probationary Period" (ACA-22).

4. Annual Review
Per the IUPUI Faculty Guide, the annual review is designed to provide input on the faculty member's progress in all three areas of evaluation (Performance, Professional Development, and Service for librarians) leading up to the tenure review and to promotion. Information provided in annual reviews is also used by library administration in salary recommendations and other assessments. To be most beneficial to the faculty member, these reviews should be candid and critical appraisals of the faculty member's work, and should call attention to weaknesses as well as strengths. Although campus and University policies do not require annual peer reviews, they are strongly recommended.

To facilitate the annual review process, each librarian is responsible for completing and filing a faculty annual report detailing their productivity for the year. Each library handles its own annual reviews, and may use forms and procedures dictated by the schools to which they belong. The three areas of evaluation (performance, professional development, and service for librarians) are the minimum categories for review. Other areas, such as professionalism, may also be included in a librarian's annual review. Consult with your supervisor for guidance through the annual review process.

5. Three-Year Formative Review
The three-year formative review is essentially:
- A no-risk opportunity for tenure-track librarians to receive objective guidance about their progress towards promotion and tenure thus far from colleagues who want to see them succeed;
- A "practice run" for the future promotion and tenure dossier.

a. IUPUI Policy
Per the IUPUI Faculty Guide, a three-year formative review is conducted for all faculty members during the spring semester of the third year of their tenure-track appointment "to ensure that all tenure-probationary faculty members benefit from helpful and meaningful assessments of their progress toward promotion and tenure near the mid-point" of their tenure-probationary period. The IUPUI Faculty Guide outlines the following applicability of the three-year formative review (Review). The remaining sections on the Review are grounded in IUPUI Policy, but specifically address procedures and policies for librarians.

b. Applicability
This policy applies to all tenure-probationary faculty members at IUPUI, with the exceptions noted immediately below. The term "third year" refers to the third full academic year of the tenure-probationary faculty member’s appointment. However, faculty members who enter with one year of credit toward tenure are in their “third year” during their second full academic year of appointment, and those who enter with two years of credit are in their “third year” during their first full academic year of appointment. Those who enter either with tenure or with more than two years of credit toward tenure are exempt from the Review.

c. Documentation and Reporting
The documentation required in the submission from the librarian under Review to their immediate supervisor includes:

- Candidate’s summary statement (≤ 5 pages)
  - Succinct statement calling attention to the librarian’s accomplishment in performance, professional development, and service.
  - Clearly state anticipated area(s) of excellence and secondary criterion.
- Detailed vita in prescribed format (links to CV format available on IUPUI Office of Academic Affairs website under Promotion and Tenure Resources)

These materials are then reviewed by the librarian’s immediate supervisor, library’s primary/school committee, the Library Faculty Promotion & Tenure Committee, and the library’s dean/director (order of review may vary by library). Each reviewer/reviewing body’s written assessment should include evaluation of progress toward promotion and tenure, using the Suggested Standards for Evaluation Librarians. If a reviewer/reviewing body identifies any problems, their assessment must include specific suggestions for remedy aimed at helping the faculty member and the faculty member’s department or unit in their efforts to rectify the problems. A copy of each written assessment, whether by the Committees or the dean/director, shall be communicated to the faculty member under review within three days of the time it is completed.

To ensure that the Review is properly conducted for all applicable tenure-probationary faculty members, the dean of each school shall be responsible for submitting copies of all reports on all tenure-probationary faculty members who have been reviewed to the Office of Academic Affairs by May 31 each year.

The documentation required in the submission to the Office of Academic Affairs includes:

- Candidate’s summary statement (≤ 5 pages)
  - Succinct statement calling attention to the librarian’s accomplishment in performance, professional development, and service.
  - Clearly state anticipated area(s) of excellence and secondary criterion.
- Detailed vita in prescribed format (links to CV format available on IUPUI Office of Academic Affairs website under Promotion and Tenure Resources)
- Supervisor’s evaluation
- Primary Peer Review Committee evaluations (if applicable)
- Position description or equivalent
- Brief summary of pre-IUPUI professional activities (if applicable)

The campus-wide deadline for three-year reviews is set by Academic Affairs. For earlier deadlines and timetables leading up to this deadline, especially the due date for your statement and vita, consult your library unit or professional school’s guidelines or your supervisor. Typically, your statement and CV are due to your immediate supervisor in mid-February.

d. Limitation on the Use of the Review
As stated in the IUPUI Faculty Guide, “[T]he thrust of the Review shall be to help the tenure-probationary faculty member to succeed. The Review and its findings shall NOT be used by the department chair or the school dean, or the Office of the Dean of the Faculties, as the basis for a tenure decision, a pre-tenure decision, a reappointment or non-reappointment decision, or any personnel action of like kind. The tenure-probationary faculty member is not limited in the use of the Review.”

B. Promotion & Tenure
The following is excerpted from the Indiana University Policy "Faculty and Librarian Promotions" (ACA-38).

1. Librarian Ranks
a. “Librarian” is the rank for librarians whose performance as Associate Librarians has been superior and whose professional development, research and/or creativity, and service have resulted in the attainment of state, regional, or national recognition in the library profession. Tenure normally accompanies this title when Librarian rank is conferred at time of appointment.

b. “Associate Librarian” is the title for librarians who have excelled in performance as Assistant Librarians and whose professional development, research and/or creativity, and service show continued improvement. Tenure is normally attained in this appointment; however, promotions to this title may be made before the sixth year without granting tenure.

c. “Assistant Librarian” is the title for librarians who have had at least two years of appropriate experience; whose performance has met and fulfills the requirements of operational standards; whose professional development, research and/or creativity, and service have been satisfactory; and who show potential for meeting the criteria for promotion to Associate Librarian. Time spent as assistant librarian is counted toward tenure. In exceptional cases, librarians may be tenured in this appointment.

d. “Affiliate Librarian” is the title for librarians who have (1) a master’s degree from an American Library Association accredited library school or the equivalent professional credentials or a graduate degree in other professional or scholarly fields where appropriate and (2) less than two years of appropriate experience. This title shall not be held longer than three years. The second evaluation must be followed by a recommendation resulting in (1) promotion, (2) a one-year terminal appointment, or (3) continuation as affiliate librarian based on extenuating circumstances (e.g., illness) which shall be explained to justify such continuation. Time spent as affiliate librarian is counted toward tenure.

2. Criteria for Promotion & Tenure
The following contains excerpts from the Indiana University Policy "Faculty and Librarian Promotions” (ACA-38). For detailed information about each of these criteria as they apply to IUPUI librarians, please refer to Suggested Standards for Evaluating Librarians (as adopted by IUPUI Library Faculty, February 13, 2008) in Appendix 2.

“Performance of Librarianship duties, professional development/research/creative activities, and service to the profession, university, and community are long standing University promotion criteria for librarians. Promotion considerations must take into account, however, differences in mission among campuses, and among library units within some campuses, as well as the individual librarian’s contribution to the library/campus mission. The relative weight attached to the criteria above should and must vary accordingly. In all cases the candidate’s total record should be assessed by comprehensive and rigorous peer review. Promotion to any rank is a recognition of past achievement and a sign of confidence that the individual is capable of greater responsibilities and accomplishments.”

a. A librarian is assessed in three categories:
   i. Performance
      • The prime requisites of an effective librarian are intellectual competence, integrity, proficiency and a willingness to cooperate with others in carrying out the responsibilities of his/her position in the library. Evidence must show that the librarian uses professional experience, knowledge of appropriate research and creativity to solve problems, improve services, innovate, and lead. Recommendations for an individual’s promotion should include evidence drawn from such sources as the collective judgment of peers, faculty and colleagues, who have been closely associated with or have some knowledge of the candidate's work.

   ii. Professional development/research/creative activities
      • A librarian who is responsive to the demands of the profession keeps abreast of the latest developments in Librarianship and makes original contributions through professional development/research/creative activities. Assessment of the quality of professional development/research/creative activities is based on evidence of the impact of such work on the development of the librarian and the advancement of the profession, among other factors.

   iii. Service
      • A librarian is expected to assume service responsibilities. Assessment of the quality of service is based on evidence of its impact on furthering the goals of the library, the specific campus, the University, the community and the advancement of the profession, and its effect on the development of the individual, among other factors.”

3. Expectations
   a. Tenure
      i. The candidate must be excellent in performance and satisfactory in the areas of professional development, research and/or creativity, and service. All a candidate’s relevant professional experience may contribute to the tenure case.

b. Promotion from Assistant Librarian to Associate Librarian.
   i. Per the IUPUI Guidelines for Preparing and Reviewing Promotion and Tenure Dossiers, a librarian candidate for promotion from assistant to associate must excel in performance, be beyond satisfactory in one of the other two criteria, and be at least satisfactory in the third area. A candidate’s entire time in rank (both at IUPUI and other institutions) contributes to the promotion case.

   ii. Excellent performance of Librarianship duties is the primary criterion. Professional development/research/creative activities and service are secondary criteria. The candidate must demonstrate continued improvement beyond the satisfactory level in one and be satisfactory in the other. If professional development is the secondary criterion, the librarian demonstrates a definite continuing program of relevant professional contributions and activities. If service is the secondary criterion, the librarian demonstrates a definite continuing commitment to service that reflects favorably on the University and the libraries, marked by increased levels of responsibility.

c. Promotion from Associate Librarian to Librarian.
   i. Per the IUPUI Guidelines for Preparing and Reviewing Promotion and Tenure Dossiers, a librarian candidate for promotion from associate to full must excel in performance, excel in one of the other two criteria, and be at least satisfactory in the third area. A candidate’s entire time in rank (both at IUPUI and at other institutions) contributes to the promotion case.

   ii. Promotion is based upon achievement beyond the level required for Associate Librarian. The librarian must have demonstrated an extraordinary ability and level of Librarianship which stimulates/inspires others. Wherever feasible he or she should have demonstrated the ability to direct the work of others, mentor students or train staff and colleagues. If professional development/research/creative activities is the secondary criterion, the candidate should have shown a continued growth in professional contributions which has enhanced the reputation of the University. If professional service is the secondary criterion, distinguished contributions must be evident.

4. The balanced case
   In exceptional cases, a librarian may be promoted based on excellent performance and evidence of balanced strengths across the other two areas of professional development/research/creative activities and service that when considered together show a level of distinction appropriate to the rank under review (Beyond Satisfactory for Assistant to Associate rank and Excellent for Associate to Librarian rank). The balanced case may be particularly suitable for librarians whose professional development, research and/or creativity and service activities are very closely intertwined.

   The balanced case will not compromise current criteria for performance and may be applied only to professional development, research, and/or creativity and service.

5. Timeline for promotion and tenure dossiers
   See Appendix 5.

6. Instructions/Guidelines for Promotion and Tenure Dossiers
   a. Guidelines for Preparing and Reviewing Promotion and Tenure Dossiers Every year, the Office of Academic Affairs publishes Guidelines for Preparing and Reviewing Promotion and Tenure Dossiers. This publication is the comprehensive and authoritative source for current information on dossiers, routing documents, forms, standards, timetables, etc. Rather than reproduce them here, please refer to the current guidelines and other resources at the IUPUI Office of Academic Affairs website.

   b. Additional “tips” for Promotion and Tenure Dossiers Below are additional “tips” for preparing your dossier. If the information in these tips conflicts with information given in the applicable Guidelines for Preparing and Reviewing Promotion and Tenure Dossiers, always follow the information in the Guidelines rather than the information provided here.

i. General Tip
All abbreviations and acronyms should be adequately explained. The librarian should keep in mind that not all individuals who review the promotion and/or tenure dossier will be familiar with the types of activity or with the professional association(s) listed. This is true throughout the dossier.

ii. Performance
The performance section should describe major accomplishments during the entire time period covered by the dossier in a way that enables evaluators to apply the indicators of quality. This section should be written in a narrative or essay style. Clear organization is essential. Grouping the discussion of major accomplishments by type (e.g. bibliographic instruction, fund management, etc.) is recommended. For all activities addressed in the summary, take care to explain the significance of the activity in light of the indicators of quality listed in Suggested Standards for Evaluating Librarian Performance (see Appendix 2) or other relevant indicators. Also take care to explain the degree to which the librarian developed and/or implemented the activity.

Documentation of performance should represent the impact of accomplishments reported. See “Documenting Performance in IUPUI Librarian Dossiers” table in the Guidelines for Preparing and Reviewing Promotion and Tenure Dossiers.
Documentation for the area of performance might include the types of documents listed below.

- Evaluative statements from former supervisors, colleagues, students, faculty, or other users of the library, including joint statements when the librarian served as part of a team
- Descriptions and evaluation of teaching responsibilities that are part of one’s job assignment
- Evidence of the significance and impact of innovative applications
- Materials prepared and their use or application
- Descriptions of development or use of new or existing technologies which impact performance and services to users
- Evaluator’s portion of annual reviews
- Solicited letters requested by a third party
- Grant proposals related to performance written and/or received, including results

If an activity is listed as teaching, indicate whether you developed the curriculum and syllabus and the extent to which others participated in teaching the course. If teaching or bibliographic instruction is a significant item in building your case, secure systematic evaluations of your teaching over a period of time. If possible use a form comparable to that used by teaching faculty on your campus or in your school.

iii. Professional Development, Research and/or Creative Activities
The professional development, research and/or creative activities section should describe major accomplishments during the entire time period covered by the dossier in a way that enables evaluators to apply the indicators of quality. This section summarizes the librarian's efforts to expand individual professional knowledge by conducting research, developing creative projects, pursuing advanced degrees and/or participating in continuing education activities.

This section should be written in narrative or essay style. Grouping the discussion of major accomplishments by type (e.g., continuing education, professional memberships, conference attendance, workshop attendance, papers presented, publications) is recommended. Again, take care to explain the significance of the activity in light of the Suggested Standards for Evaluating Librarian Professional Development, Research, and/or Creative Activities (see Appendix 3). For published papers include an explanation of the significance of the journal for those outside the area of specialization. For collaborative activities and works of joint authorship, the extent of each individual's contribution should be clearly stated.

Documentation of professional development, research, and/or creativity should represent the impact of accomplishments reported. The documentation should provide evidence to demonstrate the librarian's responsiveness to the demands of the profession by keeping abreast of latest developments and by contributions to knowledge and sharing of that expertise. Documentation for the area of professional development, research and/or creativity might include the types of documents listed below.

- Evidence of the quality of research, publications, papers, presentations, and other professional contributions. Such evidence might include copies of publications, summary of project, samples pages, reviews, abstracts, letters, or colleague evaluations.
- Evidence of fellowships, grants, awards, and/or other special honors
- Evaluator's portion of annual reviews
- Evaluative statements from colleagues
- Solicited letters requested by a third party
- Description of the impact of continuing education activities

Links to or copies of publications, regardless of format, should be included. If copies are provided, include the journal citation on the top of the first page. Links (to IUPUI ScholarWorks or other open access versions) are preferred, but copies of publications may be included for external review purposes.

The exact status of each publication should be noted. For example, articles which have been officially accepted by an editor or publisher should be identified as "in press". Articles which have been submitted for editorial review, but which have not been accepted or which have been accepted subject to revision should be identified as "submitted" or "under editorial review". Work in progress should be so labeled. Normally, work in progress will be of little relevance in the promotion process, but may be relevant to the tenure decision.

Indicate peer reviewed or refereed journals and/or papers. For refereed or non-refereed journals, describe the circulation and readership.

iv. Service
The Service section should describe major accomplishments in service to the Library, the Campus, the University, students, the discipline or library profession, the community, and other organizations done during the entire time period covered by the dossier in a way that enables evaluators to apply the indicators of quality. Again, take care to explain the significance of the activity in light of the Suggested Standards for Evaluating Librarian Service (see Appendix 4).

This section should be written in narrative or essay style. The extent of participation in service activities should be fully explained (e.g., offices held and accomplishments achieved, importance and impact of the committee's work, and the librarian's specific contribution to the committee's work).

Documentation of service should represent the impact of activities and accomplishments reported. The documentation should provide evidence to demonstrate the librarian’s application of knowledge, skills, and expertise to benefit the institution, discipline, profession, or the community. Documentation for the area of service might include the types of documents listed below.

- Evidence of the significance and impact of professional service activities (University, library, regional, state, national, community, etc.)
- Evaluative statements from colleagues or others that your service has impacted
- Evidence of individual leadership contributions and/or significant roles which may include offices held in professional associations with summary of accomplishments
- Evidence or copies of service-related publications or presentations
- Description and evaluation of teaching responsibilities performed for departments or agencies outside the library
- Evidence of professional consulting projects
- Solicited letters requested by a third party

v. Further Recommendations Regarding Supporting Documents
Documentation must effectively represent activities and accomplishments in a way that enables evaluators to apply the standards in Appendices 2 – 4. Documentation in this section should be subdivided into sections documenting the three areas: performance, professional development, research and/or creativity, and service.

Be selective in your choice of supporting documents. The purpose of documentation is to communicate the significance of your activities, not to prove that you did them. Documentation for important activities and accomplishments mentioned in each area summary should be included in the supporting document section.

If necessary, add brief annotations to supporting documents to explain the impact of activities and accomplishments, clarify roles in joint projects, and provide other information needed to support the case. The year to which the documentation applies should be noted on each document. In the eDossier system, be sure to name files in a way that is descriptive of their contents.

c. Non-IU Libraries Experience in the Dossier
Dossiers prepared for tenure cover the entire professional career including relevant professional positions held prior to IUPUI. All previous professional library positions should be covered in a tenure dossier, but the dossier is not limited to professional library positions. Relevant professional experience outside of the library field may be included if it would be seen as strengthening the dossier. The candidates who are unsure about what to include should seek guidance from their mentors, their supervisors, or colleagues.

Those who are reviewing the dossier are aware that many tenure candidates have difficulty obtaining documentation from positions held outside of IUPUI, and that in some cases such documentation doesn’t exist. Therefore, there are no set requirements as to what must be included and the format in which it must appear. It is the candidate’s responsibility to include the documentation that can be obtained, and if necessary to reconstruct descriptions of previous professional positions, and to present it in a cohesive, organized fashion in a manner that will give those reviewing the dossier a thorough picture of one’s professional career.

7. Evaluation
Librarian Promotion & Tenure dossiers are typically reviewed by external reviewers, the unit committee (i.e. ULFO’s Primary Peer Review Committee), the immediate supervisor, the IUPUI Library Faculty Promotion & Tenure Committee, the library dean/director, and, when applicable, the school dean. The dossier is then reviewed by the IUPUI Promotion & Tenure Committee, the Chief Academic Officer and the Chancellor, and the President before being voted on before the Indiana University Board of Trustees. The candidate is notified of the recommendation resulting from each level of review. For further information about the Library Faculty Promotion and Tenure Committee’s Organization and Procedures, please see the IUPUI Library Faculty Canvas site.

Section V: POST TENURE

A. Review and Enhancement
IUPUI Library Faculty adhere to campus guidelines regarding review and enhancement as specified in the IUPUI Faculty Guide, IUPUI Faculty/Librarian Review and Enhancement section and related appendix. As the IUPUI Faculty Guide states, the review and enhancement process is designed to focus on those faculty “who seek a change in career direction or emphasis and those who are failing to meet minimum levels of performance or productivity.”

B. Sabbatical Leave
IUPUI Library Faculty are eligible for sabbatical leave under the Indiana University Policy

15
“Sabbatical Leaves for Faculty and Librarians” (ACA-47) and IUPUI guidelines found in the IUPUI Faculty Guide. Sabbatical leave provides time for scholarly research and related travel and for continuing education aimed at keeping abreast of developments in their field(s).

Section VI: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

At IUPUI, librarians are eligible to seek redress for grievances through their unit and its established grievance policy. Should further redress be necessary, a librarian may pursue a grievance at the campus level. IUPUI faculty grievance procedures are governed by Article IV of the IUPUI Faculty Council Bylaws. Librarians may avail themselves of the informal grievance process established in Article IV, and, if informal measures fail, request a Faculty Board of Review. See also the IUPUI Faculty Guide, Grievance Procedure for Designated Academic Appointees section.

Section VII: SUPPORT SERVICES

A. Mentoring
Many models for mentoring exist such as one-to-one, group mentoring, peer mentoring, collaborative mentoring, and self-designed programs. Initiation/motivation from the mentee side is crucial for success of the relationship.

Aside from a variety of models, the focus of the mentor/mentee relationship has a variety of possibilities beyond Promotion and Tenure (P&T) support. While P&T support is a crucial component for junior faculty success, mentoring can and should be broader in scope and help develop a variety of skills for mentees in their professional careers.

Mentoring should be an ongoing process for all librarians, not just those who are untenured. We strongly urge that a holistic approach to mentoring be taken to support and invigorate ALL IUPUI librarians, whether they are brand new to the IUPUI system or have been here for many years.

To aid in the development of a formal mentoring process that will benefit both the mentee and the mentor, the Library Faculty initiated a Mentoring & Professional Development Committee. Librarians are also mentored by immediate supervisors and colleagues on a less formal basis. Librarians may also initiate their own one-on-one mentoring relationships within or outside their units.

B. Awards and Grants
Librarians are eligible for most of the grants and awards available to all faculty at IUPUI. For a complete listing, please visit the IUPUI Office of Academic Affairs website (Academic Resources). Opportunities include funding and awards related to research, teaching, professional development, travel to overseas conferences, and more.

1. Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award Employees of IU Libraries who hold an MLS degree or have equivalent experience (including clerical, technical, professional positions, and librarians) are eligible to apply for this award. Further information about the award, the process, eligibility, criteria, and the application form is typically distributed in the December-January timeframe with an application deadline at the end of January.
2. InULA Research Incentive Fund The Indiana University Librarians Association (InULA) is open to all librarians in the IU Libraries. Membership confers eligibility to apply for grant monies to support librarian research. Guidelines and application form available from the InULA website.

3. Minde Browning Professional Development Grant "provides financial support for librarians and library staff [in Central Indiana] to further their skills through the following areas: professional conferences and workshops, professional coursework, leadership development programs, and group programs related to libraries, media centers, etc.” IUPUC librarians are not eligible for this grant. Application, with details and instructions, and report forms are located on the Central Indiana Community Fund (CICF) website [http://www.cicf.org/grantseekers/forms-and-resources].

C. Research Leave
University Library has a formal application process for faculty librarians, both tenured and tenure-track, to apply for up to eight (8) total weeks of paid leave during a three (3) year period in order to pursue professional development, research, or service activities. For University Library research leave application and guidelines, please consult the University Library Faculty Organization (ULFO) Canvas site or contact the current chair of the ULFO.

School of Dentistry, Ruth Lilly Medical Library, Ruth Lilly Law Library, and University Library of Columbus librarians should consult their directors for information on research leave opportunities.
