The Last Lecture

_Lessons for Life from a Lifetime of Learning_

The Last Lecture offers the university community an opportunity to hear reflections on life’s lessons and meaning from a retired or current IUPUI colleague of exceptional merit. The lecturer will be asked to share with students, staff, faculty, and the general public the wisdom she or he gained through academic pursuits and life experiences; distilling a life of inquiry, reflection, and service into advice for successive generations.

To be chosen The Last Lecture speaker is not only an individual honor, but also an honor for the speaker’s department and school. We ask that deans and department chairs encourage their faculty and staff to nominate outstanding colleagues who have achieved much over the course of their career, and to make such nominations themselves.

Nominations: All IUPUI faculty, retired faculty, staff, and students are invited to submit nominations for The Last Lecture speaker. Nominators should complete the on-line nomination form providing a justification why the nominee deserves consideration, as well as the nominee’s CV or resume.

Nominations are due by midnight (ET), Friday, November 20, 2015. Nominators should also confirm the nominee’s availability on the date of the lecture, April 1, 2016.

Eligibility: All current and retired IUPUI based faculty, administrators and staff members are eligible.

Lecture Guidelines: 40-45 minute speech on the general subject of the speaker’s lifetime accumulation of wisdom and insights on a topic to be decided by the speaker.

Lecture date and location: Friday, April 1, 2016, 2:00 p.m. in the IUPUI Campus Center Theatre.

Sponsors: The Last Lecture is sponsored by the IUPUI Senior Academy, IUPUI Office of Academic Affairs and the Indiana University Foundation.

Honorarium: The Indiana University Foundation will offer the featured speaker an honorarium of $1,500.

Selection Process: A committee of the IUPUI Senior Academy will consider all nominations and select a pool of candidates by Tuesday, December 15, 2015. Selected nominees will be invited to submit a synopsis of their proposed presentation by early January 2016, for review by a final selection committee of current and retired faculty, staff and students. These materials should be forwarded to Patti Hair at sacademy@iupui.edu. The name of the selected speaker will be announced late January 2016. Transcripts and videos of lectures from previous years are archived on the IUPUI Senior Academy _website_.
