Important Supplement for IUPUI Syllabi

IUPUI Policy on Disability Accommodations
Students needing accommodations because of disability will need to register with Adaptive Educational Services (AES) and complete the appropriate forms issued by AES before accommodations will be given. The AES office is located in Taylor Hall, UC 100. You can also reach the office by calling 317-274-3241.

IUPUI Policy on Religious Holidays
IUPUI respects the right of all students to observe their religious holidays and will make reasonable accommodation, upon request, for such observances. Students seeking accommodation for religious observances must submit a request in writing to the course instructor by the end of the second week of the semester and should use the Request for Course Accommodation Due to Religious Observance Form. More information on the IUPUI Policy on Religious Holidays is available here: http://registrar.iupui.edu/religious.html.

IUPUI Policy on Academic Integrity:
The IU Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct states that students must uphold and maintain academic and professional honesty and integrity; the code defines academic misconduct as any activity that tends to undermine the academic integrity of the institution. Students engaging in academic misconduct may therefore receive penalties from their course instructor and disciplinary action from the university. Policies against academic misconduct apply to all course-, department-, school-, and university-related activities. Academic misconduct may involve human, hard-copy, or electronic resources and includes but is not limited to cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, interference, violation of course rules, and facilitating academic dishonesty. For definitions of these activities, visit http://studentcode.iu.edu/responsibilities/academic-misconduct.html. For information on how faculty and students are expected to handle cases involving academic misconduct, visit http://registrar.iupui.edu/misconduct.html. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of IU students is available at http://studentcode.iu.edu/.

IUPUI Policy on Sexual Misconduct
What you should know about sexual misconduct: IU does not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the university can help. It is important to know that federal regulations and university policy require faculty to promptly report complaints of potential sexual misconduct known to them to their campus Deputy Title IX Coordinator(s) or IU’s Title IX Coordinator to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. The university will work with you to protect your privacy by sharing information with only those that need to know to ensure the university can respond and assist. If you are seeking help and would like to speak to someone confidentially, you can make an appointment with a Mental Health Counselor on campus (contact information available at http://stopsexualviolence.iu.edu/employee/confidential.html). Find more information about sexual violence, including campus and community resources at http://stopsexualviolence.iu.edu/.

Education and Title VI

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 protects people from discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance.

Programs and activities that receive Federal financial assistance from the United States Department of Education must operate in a non-discriminatory manner. These may include, but are not limited to: admissions, recruitment, financial aid, academic programs, student treatment and services, counseling and guidance, discipline, classroom assignment, grading, vocational education, recreation, physical education, athletics, housing, and employment, if it affects those who are intended to benefit from the Federal funds.
